Hi Mark,

Yes, correct. [Ex. 6 - Personal Privacy] just reminded me of the holiday, and the embassy will be closed both May 29 and June 2. So, yes...that will be an action-packed three days.

Also, since [Ex. 6 - Personal Privacy] and another coworker are in charge of credentials at the Leader's Conference/Sicily, she'll be 100% occupied from about May 10, until the end of the leader's ministerial on May 27 (then the weekend and holiday comes for a much-needed respite!)

Now POTUS will come see the Pope in Rome before the Brussels NATO meeting (before the G7), so that will tie up more logistical resources here.

We'll set up as much as we can before [Ex. 6 - Personal Privacy] takes off, but Italians are not famous for planning far in advance (yet everything always works out beautifully!)

Wow! This sounds like it is going to be a challenge.

I imagine the Embassy is closed on May 29th as well? This would only give us May 30-June 1 to do all the advance?

Hi Mark,

While planning your advance, please note that Friday, June 2 is a national holiday, so many people will be unavailable/out of town from June 2 – 4 and buildings will likely be unavailable for walk-throughs.

Hello Everyone,

A couple bits of news. First, our meeting with Administrator Pruitt has been postponed until this Friday afternoon.

Second, a new Chief of Scheduling and Advance was hired this week. His name is Kevin, don't have a last name yet. He apparently did advance for the Presidential campaign and is former military. He will now be coming out for the advance and through the mission. Regardless, they would still like me to join Kevin and Millan for the advance as well, so you will still see me a few days early. Kevin said he will help us nail down the final delegation members and understands our challenge of reserving rooms during high season in Rome.

Third, it looks like the Pruitt children are no longer coming to Italy. I will confirm on Friday.

Fourth, the Administrator's staff asked me to inquire whether the Gran Melia Rome could be considered as a hotel for his delegation. I mentioned that this might not be possible as I believe we already have a contract with the Hotel Regina Baglioni and that I wasn't sure if the Gran Melia met the Embassy's security standards, but promised that I would check with you all.

Fifth, it is ok to have wine for the Administrator for any toasts that he might be expected to make.

I'll keep you posted as I learn more.

Mark

Hi Ex. 6 - Personal Privacy I will ask the hotel to postpone the time limit to Friday directly.

That should be good.

What do you think?

What is the cut-off time on Wednesday since DC does not open until 2pm/3pm our time? Plus this is the same day Mark will actually talk to the Administrator for almost final answers. Just wanted to give Mark a sense of time he is working with. Thank you!

While it would be nice, rooms do not necessarily need to be connecting as kids are high school and college age. At least [Ex. 7(e)]

Also, FYI, just learned that kids will return home from Rome, but Mrs. Pruitt plans to accompany Administrator to Bologna.

Mark, also in Rome we provide always free upgrading for the VIP which is normally in a two rooms (bedroom and living room) Suite. In this case we have to ask for connecting rooms as they are 4 adults (correct? Not sure of the children's age).
Please provide the age and I will check with the hotel if we can come up with a good solution

Thanks, Ex. 6 - Personal Privacy Let's not order the suite for the Administrator. We cannot go over per diem for him. We should order a normal room for him and then his family can order an additional room for the kids at no cost to the U.S. Government. I am used to the hotels we work with in Asia that regularly offer complimentary upgrades for the VIPs which is why I made the inquiry about the two bedroom suite.

Ex. 7(c)

Please let Ex. 6 - Personal Privacy know today if dates and numbers for PSD (security) rooms are correct. Given that it is high season, they need to secure the rooms now.

Thanks, Mark

Hi Ex. 6 - Personal Privacy

This looks good to me, but I'm adding Anna, Mark, and Brianna from EPA to make sure we have it right. Team EPA, please see below, and note the hotel needs to secure the rooms by April 21. (The only thing missing from the budget are the hotel costs in Bologna. Once we plug that in, the master budget will be complete and we can send it to EPA. Fede, can you please check with our Ambiente friends and see if a decision has been made for the staff hotels?) Even if we get an answer soon, it seems that it would take longer to get the fiscal data, so credit card holds may be the way to go.

Also, flights haven't been finalized, but would imagine when they are that we'll need to ask for early check-in.

Hi Ex. 6 - Personal Privacy, just wanted to touch base with you on the hotel side.
As requested I have cancelled the reservation at the Westin and kept the one at the Hotel Regina Baglioni.

Room cost in single occupancy is euro 326.00 per night including breakfast and all taxes.
The Suite (with two bedrooms connecting) for the VIP will cost euro 1540.00 , all included.
We have a total of 10 rooms reserved as follows:

31st May – 9th June – 10 nights – 2 rooms HUPP Admin Secretary [Ex. 7(e)]

31st May – 10 June – 11 nights – 2 rooms KASMAN Admin. Secretary [Ex. 7(e)]

5th June – 10th June – 5 nights – 1 Suite + 5 rooms PRUITT Admin. Secretary [Ex. 7(e)] DRAVIS FERGUSON
NISHIDA

The hotel will hold the rooms without commitment until the 21st of April and by then I will need either a fund cite or all the credit cards (and names too ☺)

My understanding is that no Control Room has been requested.

Do you know when the Delegation will be checking in ? Because check in time is 2.00 pm.

Please let me know if all looks good.
Will wait to hear from you

Thank you
